Law Enforcement / Crimes	Burglary	News	4/7/2010	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	21
Another Medford business burglarized in the middle of the night, adding to the long list of a string of unsolved cases. Police say the first five businesses were hit between March 7th and 18th. Police say these suspects are desperate and need to be stopped.
4/19/10: Another burglary in Medford in the Winco Shopping Center. Police say this is the seventh local business hit by burglars in a similar way in the last month or so. They are not saying if the cases are related.
4/20/10: Two more Medford businesses broken into in the middle of the night and police still don't have any leads.
4/23/10: Burglars hit another Medford business overnight, leaving the owners to clean up the mess. Advanced TV on Court Street is the tenth business targeted in the past two months.
5/10/10: A West Medford store is the latest to get hit, with thousands of dollars in merchandise ripped off. Medford Police say burglaries are up about 30% from this time last year.
Law Enforcement / Rules	Inmate Rights	News	4/7/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
The Josephine County Sheriff is banning letters to and from inmates in his jail. Last week, the Jackson County Sheriff did the same thing. Now civil rights activists are taking action, challenging up 13 counties across the state enforcing the new policy, claiming prisoners deserve privacy, too. So far, jail staff says the biggest complaint from inmates is that they won't be able to get pictures from home anymore.
Taxes / Federal	Tax Deadline	News	4/8/2010	5p, 11p, 6a	3
One week left to pay your taxes. If you won't be ready by the April 15th deadline, you can apply for an extension. That will put taxes off until October, but if you owe any money, it's still due on April 15th.
Business / Expansion	Vet Facility	News	4/8/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	7
Five Oregon counties are campaigning for a long-term care home for veterans. Klamath County is just one of those hoping to land the 250-bed hospital. Jackson, Coos, Linn, and Douglas counties are also in the running. The new facility will create up to 300 jobs for the county that gets it. The decision on which county will get the hospital will be next week.
4/24/10: The Oregon Department of Veteran's Affairs announced it will build a veteran's home in Linn County. They're also considering building a home in Roseburg, but still need approval for that. The original plan was to build one 250-bed home, but the group felt it would be better to build two smaller homes to cover more of the state's veterans. Oregon has just one veteran's home right now, that's in The Dalles.
Health / Virus	Virus	News	4/9/2010	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p	4
A mysterious virus is sweeping through a local retirement community. Thirty are sick and more than 6 people at Eagle Cove Retirement Community in Eagle Point have been hospitalized with flu-like symptoms. Public health officials say they are taking samples of the virus and will know Tuesday at the earliest what the virus is.
Political Process / Healthcare	Merkley Visit	News	4/9/2010	6p, 11p	2
Senator Jeff Merkley got a standing ovation at Grilla Bites in Medford. He was there celebrating the passage of the health care bill with members of Oregon Action and other local democrats. Merkley also spoke to families and small business owners on how this new bill will affect them.
Education / Budgets	School Cuts	News	4/12/2010	6a, 12p	2
Another local school district considers cutting to a 4-day school week. The move would save the Klamath County School District $6.3 million each year.

Josephine County / Budgets Josephine County says the Sheriff's Office is out of money. The Sheriff says that could mean the end of the Sheriff's Office. Representatives from Oregon's Department of Criminal Justice visited Grants Pass to figure out how to restructure the system so law enforcement can stay local. Two more meetings are scheduled in the coming weeks.	JoCo Sheriff	News	4/12/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 5p	6
4/30/10: The Josephine County Sheriff says his department could be facing big money problems down the road. A Federal loan runs out in 2013, leaving the department with 40% less cash. He says if the county doesn't get more money, the last resort would be a State bailout of the Sheriff's Department. But for now, the department has enough money to keep rolling at its current level for the next two years.
Education / Funding The President of the Rogue River Education Association says his teachers will only be working their contracted hours. That means none of the extras, like prep work and helping students off the clock. The decision comes after two years of negotiation to secure a contract with the District and now the talks are at a stand still.	Teachers	News	4/13/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
Community Services / Emergency Services The Medford Fire Department has a policy problem with the new 911 Call Center. The Fire Department and 911 Call Center cannot agree on what calls Medford firefighters should respond to. If they don't fix the problem soon, it could cost the city up to tens of thousands of dollars.	Dispatch	News	4/13/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Political Process / Local Races Eleven candidates are running for Josephine County Commissioner. A forum was held to allow Josephine County voters to get a chance to hear from them. The forum was in preparation for the Oregon Primary Election on May 18th.	JoCo Commissioner	News	4/13/2010	11p, 6a, 12p	3
Taxes / Federal Tax Day is here. For many it's a time to protest. Tea Party members are planning rallies all over the country and region; they are angry at the increasing national debt, high taxes, and rapidly expanding government. There are a few rallies planned in Southern Oregon.	Tax Day	News	4/14/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	10
Consumer Affairs / Information A new study shows Ashland landlords have a racial bias toward some potential renters. Two thirds of landlords showed racial bias toward potential renters according to a study conducted by the Fair Housing Council of Oregon. Discrimination against people with disabilities and families with children were also found in the study.	Discrimination	News	4/15/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
Education / Quality The Chinese Government is funding programs in the United States to teach students their language and culture. Two Central Point middle schools, Hanby and Scenic, and Ashland High School are the latest to get on-board with this program. St. Mary's in Medford was the first school in the Rogue Valley to take part.	Chinese	News	4/15/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	6
4/27/10: A local middle school is teaching students Chinese. But as the Hispanic population grows in Southern Oregon, some say Chinese shouldn't be the only foreign language option.
Josephine County / Budgets Josephine Animal Control has been hit hard by budget cuts and they say if they don't get help fast, they'll have to close up shop.	JoCo Animal Control	News	4/16/2010	6p, 11p	2
Services / Armed Services National Guard troops will be coming home next week and local families are gearing up for their return. More than 70 National Guardsmen from the Klamath Basin are already home after their tour in Iraq.	Guard Homecoming	News	4/18/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 5p, 12p	33
4/19/10: Volcanic ash is still making a mess of air travel in Europe. The back-up of flights is affecting local troops coming home from overseas; as a result, many homecomings could be delayed for days.
4/22/10: Some Oregon Army National Guard soldiers are still stuck in Kuwait and they'll miss this weekend's big demobilization ceremony in Medford. Governor Kulongoski and other lawmakers will attend the ceremony on Saturday at South Medford High School.

4/24/10: After spending a brief time with their families, just over 300 soldiers marched to South Medford High School for a demobilization ceremony. As they walked from the Medford Armory to the high school, hundreds lined the streets to say thank you. Senator Wyden, Congressman Walden, and others praised not only the soldiers, but their family members for their service. 4/25/10: Around 100 Oregon National Guard soldiers still have to make their way back home. Right now they are in Ft. Lewis delayed by the ash from Iceland's volcano. A spokesperson with the Medford Armory says those stranded men and women should be home within the next 4-6 days. When they get here, they'll have a debriefing ceremony of their own. 4/26/10: Hundreds of local National Guardsmen and women are home from war and now that the party is over, many are facing a new fight: readjusting to life back home. 4/27/10: Thousands of signs lined the streets to celebrate a hero's welcome in Medford. Now the group that put the signs up wants the public's help taking them down. Lithia Motors printed 6,000 signs that now need to be taken off the streets and the public is welcome to take them. 4/30/10: Another happy homecoming in Southern Oregon. More than 100 troops are home today from a year long deployment in Iraq. Their homecoming is a week later than the rest of their battalion because the volcano eruption in Iceland shut down air travel.
Consumer Affairs / Recall	Ground Beef Recall	News	4/19/2010	5p	1
Winco Foods has issued a voluntary recall on ground beef sold late last month and early this month. The recall comes after samples from Winco's Modesto, California store tested positive for e-coli.
Business / New Business	Best Buy	News	4/19/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
A $1.6 million remodeling job is underway in Medford and an Ashland-based company got the job to remodel the new Best Buy store. Adroit Construction won the bid and has hired back some laid-off workers. The remodel completion date is set for July 5th, which will give Best Buy plenty of time to bring in merchandise by opening day on August 20th.
Education / Funding	School Budget	News	4/20/2010	11p, 6a, 12p	5
The Medford School Board approved more school days for next year; they approved tentative plans for a 170 day school year, 6 more days than this year. The decision won't be official for about a week.
4/27/10: At a Medford School District meeting, the superintendent proposed a budget for next year. This year they are working with $99 million; that number reflects additional money the State has through legislature.
Political Process / Local Races	JaCo Commissioner	News	4/20/2010	11p, 6a, 5p, 6p	10
Two Jackson County Commission seats up for grabs in November, with 13 candidates vying for the positions. Eight of nine republicans in the race were represented at a public forum at the Medford Public Library. Each candidate answer 10 questions given to them prior to the meeting. The Primary Election is scheduled for May 18th and the General Election is in November.
5/11/10: News10 introduces the 13 candidates vying for two Jackson County Commissioner positions.
Education / Charter Schools	Logos	News	4/21/2010	5p, 6p, 6a	3
The Medford School Board approved the proposal for "Logos Charter School." They hope to have the school up and running by September. Logos will be a K-12 school for home-schoolers. Most of the teaching will stay in the school, but a small location will be provided for special projects like labs.
Business / Industry	Wine Shipments	News	4/21/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
A bill making its way to U.S. lawmakers could hurt Southern Oregon wineries. It would make direct shipping outside state lines illegal. They would have to ship wine through a third party and the consumer would pay higher shipping prices and experience an increased shipping time. The bill still has to be passed in both the House and Senate before it makes it to the President's desk.

Young People / Community Issues Southern Oregon has one of the highest numbers of homeless students across the state. Now the Rogue River School District is getting Federal stimulus dollars to help fight the growing problem. With the help of this money, they can hire a new permanent, part-time position to help students get to school, get food and access to other social services.	Homeless Students	News	5/3/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Environment / Drought The Upper Klamath Basin is now a Federal disaster area due to drought conditions. The formal declaration for Klamath and neighboring counties in Oregon and California makes it possible for farmers with Federal crop insurance to make claims. It also makes low-interest loans available.	Klamath Drought	News	5/4/2010	12p	1
Environment / Management The Gold Ray Dam is one step closer to coming down. Jackson County Commissioners voted to remove the dam along the Rogue River. Federal funding for the project played a role in moving forward with the motion. Instead of putting the $16 million burden on the County government to repair the dam, the Commissioners want to take advantage of a grant that would cover the majority of the removal costs. Health / Diet An old diet, designed in 1954, is getting new attention: it's the HCG diet. A natural hormone is reintroduced into the body and it reportedly triggers the brain to burn up stored fat. News10 takes a closer look at this controversial diet.	HCG Diet	News	5/5/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	8
Political Process / Ballot Measure If voters play their cards right, they could see legal social gaming in Cave Junction. That means businesses could host card games for money. This idea was brought to the City Council by a local business owner who says it could boost business during tough winter months. But the mayor says its not for him or the Council to decide. Social gaming will appear as a Measure on the May ballot.	Gaming	News	5/5/2010	11p, 6a, 12p	3
Law Enforcement / Ordinances The Medford City Council is set to discuss a revised panhandling ordinance. The proposal deletes language from a previous ordinance deemed unconstitutional by the courts because it restricted free speech. The updated version still makes abusive solicitation against the law. Once someone has declined a request for solicitation, it would be illegal to block, follow or threaten them. 5/10/10: Medford Police Lieutenant Hanson explains new changes to Medford's revised panhandling law.	Panhandling	News	5/6/2010	12p, 5p	2
Fires / Fire Season With fire season right around the corner, some state firefighters are looking for volunteers in the Rogue Valley. They say they need all the help they can get. Recently, ODF got a $300,000 grant, part of which is helping them set up a program for a volunteer group of people for fire prevention. The grant is also being used for fuel reduction work in areas with high fire danger.	Fire Season	News	5/6/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Young People / Community Service Southern Oregon's newest war memorial has been unveiled and eight of Prospect's newest war veterans are being honored. The whole thing was built by the sister of one of the deployed guardsmen for her high school senior project.	War Memorial	News	5/6/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Economy / Employment Klamath County is seeing some progress in the jobs picture. The unemployment rate remains above 12% in Klamath County, but that's more than two percentage points lower than it was a year ago.	Employment	News	5/6/2010	12p	1
Law Enforcement / Ordinances It's now ok to sip cocktails outside of bars and restaurants in Medford. The City Council unanimously approved the ordinance at a City Council meeting. The idea is on sunny days a downtown restaurant can attract guests with patio seating and now alcohol can be served in those areas. The police department stresses this is not the same as drinking in public; you cannot walk down the streets of downtown with a beer in your hand. Young People / Education It's graduation time for high school seniors. But the kids can't participate in graduation without a cap and gown and some families just don't have the money for the graduation gear. That's no longer a problem at Grants Pass High School. After News10's story last year, small business owners, the Chamber of Commerce and even the Employment Department made sure money wouldn't stop these seniors from this major milestone. In fact, so many donations flooded in, the school now has a graduation emergency fund that will help outfit every 2010 graduating senior who needs it.	GP Graduates	News	5/7/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3

Gulf Oil	News	5/13/2010	11p, 6a	2
Law Enforcement / Public Safety Concern over safety on the Bear Creek Greenway heats up. Summer weather is getting people outdoors, but there is one area that many plan to avoid. A good samaritan jumped into action on Tuesday and stopped a sexual assault on the 20 mile path that connects five cities from Ashland to Central Point. Many stretches aren't well lit and vegetation can hide dangers. Some say they would rather find another place to enjoy the outdoors.	Greenway Safety	News	5/13/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
Economy / State Budget Deep cuts coming to California. Governor Schwarzenegger announced his revised budget plan that includes some of the deepest cuts to California's health and welfare programs since the State tumbled into recession nearly three years ago.	CA Budget	News	5/14/2010	5p	1
Business / Expansion The Oregon Supreme Court will convene in Medford for the first time in 20 years. On the agenda is an appeal for the Wal-Mart Supercenter planned for South Medford. Court rulings have gone back and forth over whether the City should have required the company to complete a comprehensive traffic impact study. The hearing is set for 9am at North Medford High School on Tuesday and 9am at Ashland High School on Wednesday. High school and college students will observe the hearing. Education / Zoning The Medford School District is setting up a plan to ease overcrowding in some schools. The plan is set up, but still needs final approval by the school board. Parents are split on the issue, concerned about their kids having to change schools. The District will take final comments from parents on June 1st, the same night the board is scheduled to decide whether or not they'll approve the plan.	Overcrowding	News	5/21/2010	6p, 11p	2
Community Services / Emergency Services A compromise has been reached between the Medford Fire Department and the new Consolidated Dispatch Center. A hitch in the negotiation came up late in the process when the Medford Fire Department raised concerns; they worried they would waste taxpayer resources by responding the same way as more rural fire departments do. With the compromise, the dispatchers will use a color coded system for fire and medical calls: one for rural fire departments and one for Medford fire calls.	Compromise	News	5/21/2010	5p, 6p	2
Political Process / Lobbying If you want your voice heard, one Congressman says, just text him. Representative Greg Walden was in Medford to promote his new program called "You Cut," which is a Republican driven campaign to cut wasteful spending in the country. He says taxpayers will have an opportunity to weigh in and make their voices heard by texting. You can vote on what measures you want cut by texting in.	Text	News	5/22/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Economy / State Budget Oregon's state budget is even smaller than feared and that means more cuts immediately. The State Economist says the budget is $500 million short of his original forecast. State spending will be trimmed 9% for the rest of the current budget period. The shortfall was attributed to greater job losses and lower personal income than expected last year.	OR Budget	News	5/25/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	10
5/28/10: Oregon's budget gap is even wider than first thought. The estimated budget shortfall now stands at more than $577 million. Governor Kulongoski says budgets will be trimmed by 9% during the rest of the state's two year budget period, which ends in mid-2011.
6/8/10: Schools and Oregon agencies must decide how they're going to cut 9% out of their budgets and the deadline is today. State agencies had to send their proposed spending cuts to the Governor; now they are waiting for him to announce the final plan.
